Renovation

The exterior design concept of the renovated library.

Plans for the renovation of the library are moving along. We anticipate a construction start date around summer of 2010. For all the latest details on this exciting venture, visit the library renovation page online. When construction begins, we'll post photos and invite your comments!

Events

The Huntsville Public Library Friends is sponsoring a show, Stories Alive!, at the Old Town Theatre this month. The show, created and performed by Toni Simmons, features African and African-

Toni Simmons

American folktales and includes audience participation in the form of chants and movements.

For more on Toni Simmons, visit her website at www.tonisimmons.com. Check out the last page of this newsletter for a full listing of events.

Closings

The library will be closed Friday, January 1, 2010, in observance of the New Year. We will reopen Saturday, January 2, at 9:00 AM. The library will also be closed all day on Monday, January 18, 2010 in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

Calling Scrapbookers and Internet-Savvy Volunteers!

The library is looking for a few good long-term volunteers to assist us with special projects.

Scrapbooker

The library keeps a scrapbook of important events. We need a creative volunteer to compile newspaper clippings and photographs into an attractive book and keep it updated. This project can be done at the library or at home, and the library provides the materials and newspaper clippings.

Online Bookseller

Ever sold any of your used books online? The library is looking for a reliable volunteer to list valuable donated materials on websites such as Ebay, Amazon.com, and AbeBooks. The ideal volunteer is an Internet-savvy individual who has some knowledge of the value of books and knows his or her way around the type of websites mentioned above.

General Volunteer

The library is always looking for volunteers who are willing to commit to assist us regularly with ongoing activities such as shelving, shelf-reading, cleaning, maintaining the front and back yards, and other tasks.

If you are looking for a rewarding volunteer experience in a warm, welcoming environment, we want you as part of our team! For more details, visit the volunteer page on our website or call Kimberly Francisco, Library Services Coordinator, at 936-291-5481.

Spotlight On: Gale Legal Forms

What is Gale Legal Forms?

Gale Legal Forms is a collection of thousands of official, Texas-specific, federal, business, personal, real estate, and general legal forms. These forms are professionally drafted and can be used in many different legal situations. Specific categories include divorce, wills, change of name, sale of property, and employment, among others.

How do I access Gale Legal Forms?

First, go to the library's home page:

www.MyHuntsvilleLibrary.com. At the left, click on Online Databases. Gale Legal Forms is listed near the bottom of that page. If you are using Gale Legal Forms at the library, you may simply click on the link and you will be directed immediately to the database. If you are using Gale Legal Forms at home, you will be prompted to enter your library card number before proceeding. You MUST go to Gale Legal Forms from the library's website or you will be denied access.

How does Gale Legal Forms work?

Once you are inside the database, simply search for what you need in the top left search box (for example, "divorce,") or choose a category from the main list. Once you have found the form you need, you can download templates or completed examples, usually in both pdf and Microsoft Word formats.
